

SINGAPORE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOLS LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME

Interested in becoming a staff leader that has effective skills at implementing change?
Take part in 3 one-day workshops as you visit and interact with staff from other schools in the area!

This programme consists of six “gel” sessions during the year, with each leader’s ‘in-school’ supervisor to review inquiry, support and challenge leadership thinking and to provide tools and rubrics to help you along the process.

Workshops

Workshop 1: Leading Change

27th or 29th October 2025

Dulwich College (Singapore)

Growing collaborative culture
Leadership tools for positive and sustainable change

Workshop 2: Leading Learning

3rd or 4th March 2026

North London Collegiate School

Teacher development and quality pedagogy
Peer coaching and facilitation skills
Case studies of professional inquiry in schools

Workshop 3: Leading systems

11th and 13th May 2026

German European School

Managing conflict – difficult conversations
Strategic planning
Future focused learning

Our Trainers

Greg Jansen

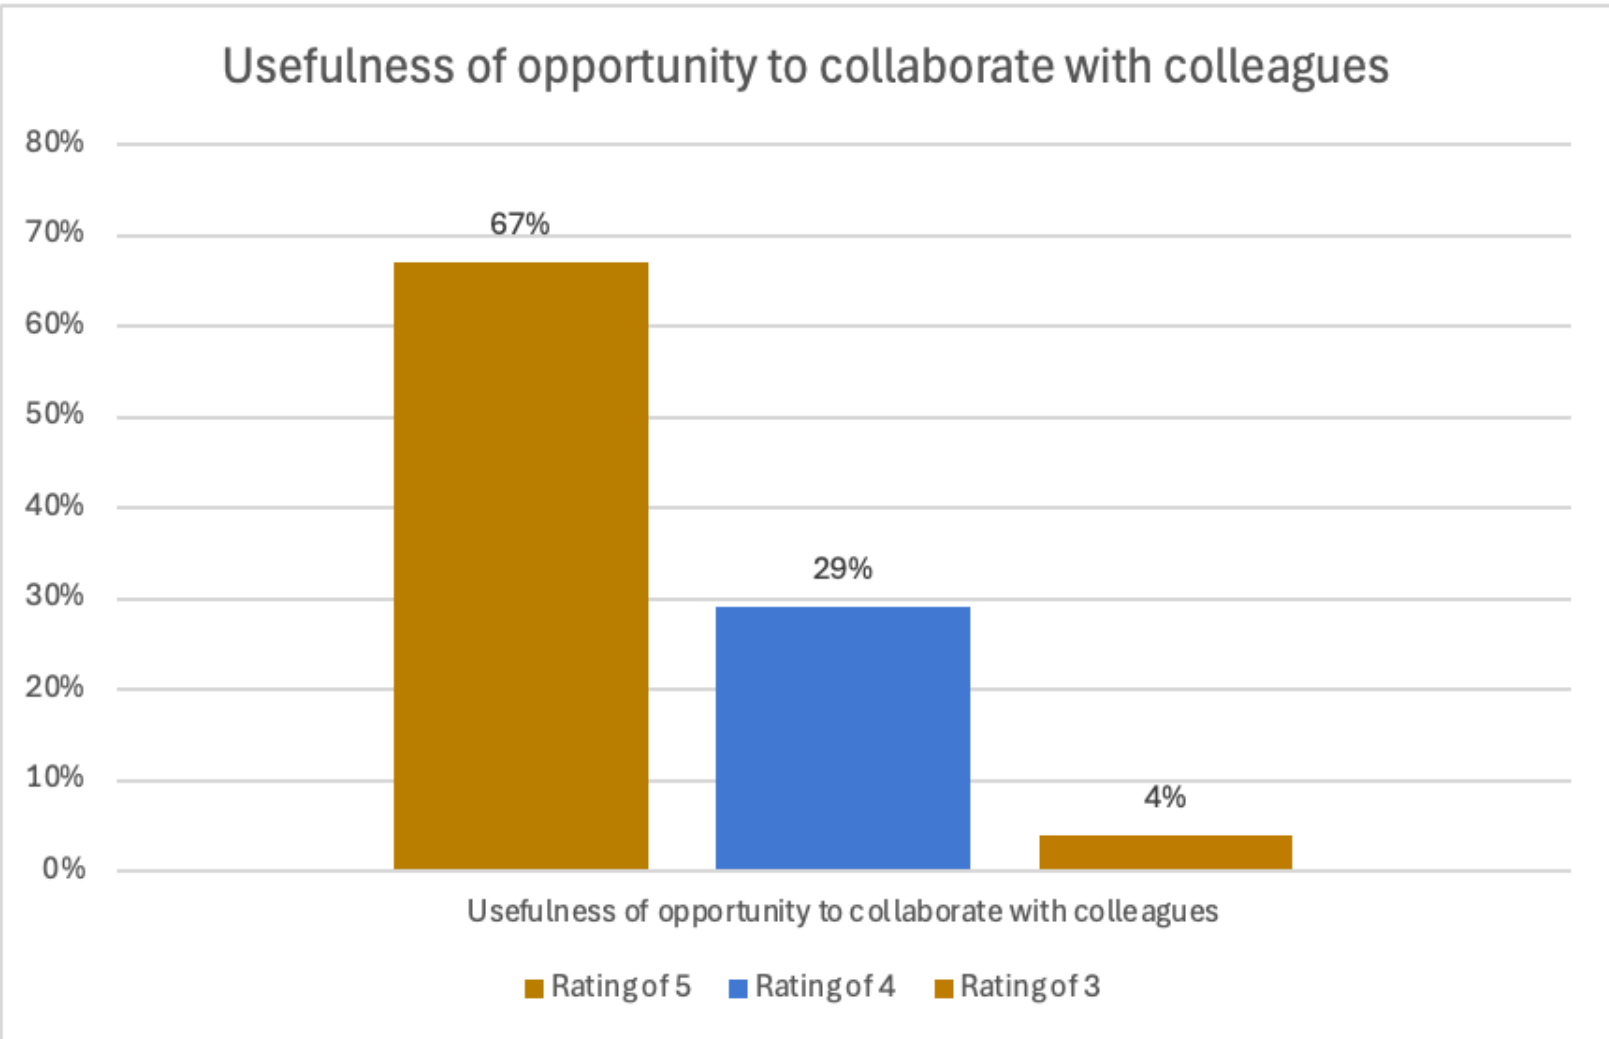

Dr Chris Jansen

$750

per person
(dependent on sign ups)

RESPONSES

Graph extracted from overall response 24/25

I FOUND THE GEL SESSIONS AND THE OPPORTUNITY TO MEET OTHER COLLEAGUES ON THE COURSE TO BE EXTREMELY BENEFICIAL. IT WAS VALUABLE TO HAVE DEDICATED TIME FOR THESE GEL SESSIONS. THE COURSE GAVE ME A MUCH GREATER UNDERSTANDING OF NOT ONLY WHAT MAKES A GOOD LEADER BUT ALSO WHAT GOOD LEADERSHIP LOOKS LIKE. I NOW HAVE A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF DIFFERENT LEADERSHIP MODELS AND WHICH MIGHT BE MOST EFFECTIVE IN VARIOUS SITUATIONS.

Quote extracted from overall response

